

September 29th – 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Opening Song All Are Welcome

Let us build a house where love can dwell And all can safely live;
A place where saints and children tell How hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions, Rock of faith and vault of grace:
Here the love of Christ shall end divisions:
All are welcome, all are welcome all are welcome in this place

Let us build a house where prophets speak, And words are strong and true;
Where all god's children dare to seek, To dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness And as symbol of God's grace;
Here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:
All are welcome, all are welcome all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where love is found In water wine and wheat;
A banquet hall on holy ground, Where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God, through Jesus, Is revealed in time and space:
As we share in Christ the feast that frees us,
All are welcome, all are welcome all are welcome in this place

Let us build a house where hands will reach Beyond the wood and stone;
To heal and strengthen, serve and teach, And live the Word they've known
Here the outcast and the stranger bear the image of God's face:
Let us bring an end to fear and danger:
All are welcome, all are welcome all are welcome in this place

Presider: We gather together on this Sacred Morning in the name of God, who is the Source of All Being, God who is the Incarnation, and God who is Holy Spirit
All: Amen

Preface:

Presider: All loving and ever-living God, we do well always and everywhere to give you thanks through Jesus, who is the Christ. By his birth, we are reborn. in his suffering, we are made free. By his rising from the dead, we rise to everlasting life. in his return to you we enter the heavenly realm. And so, we join the angels and the saints and sing the unending hymn of praise:

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might; heaven and earth are filled with your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Presider and all: Source of All Being, you are holy indeed, the fountain of all holiness. Let your spirit come upon these gifts to make them holy, so that they may become for us the Body and Blood of your son, Jesus, the Christ, at whose invitation we celebrate this eucharist.

Presider: Before he was given up to death, a death he freely accepted, he took bread and gave you thanks and praise. He broke the bread, gave it to his friends and said; "Take this all of you and eat it. This is my Body which will be given up to you."

Presider: When supper was ended, Jesus took the cup. Again he gave you thanks and praise, gave the cup to his friends and said: "Take this all of you and drink from it. This is the cup of my Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me."

Presider: Let us proclaim the mystery of our faith:

All: Christ Jesus, by your life, death and resurrection you have set us free. You are the redeemer of the world.

Presider: In memory of his life, death and resurrection we offer you, God of Compassion, this life-giving bread, this redeeming cup. We thank you for counting us worthy to be in your presence and serve you. May all of us who share in the body and blood of the Christ remember our connection with the Circle of Life and our unity through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

Loving God, remember your People throughout the world and nurture our growth in love together with our bishop Michael, and all the people of God.

Remember our family members, our partners, spouses, pets and friends, and all who have walked with us on the life's journey and who have crossed over to be completely in the light of your divine presence. With gratitude, we honor them and are thankful they shared their lives with us.

Keep us mindful of the precious gift of our Mother Earth, and all of creation. Continue to awaken us to her wondrous mystery. May your love for your creation show us the path to harmony and balance.

May we always remember your Compassion, as we share eternal life with Mary, the Mother of God, with all who have followed the spiritual path and who have done your will throughout the ages. May we praise you in union with them, and give you glory through your Son, Jesus, our brother, who is the Christ.

ALL: Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honor are yours, our loving God
forever and ever, Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, now and forever. Amen.

The Lord be with you
And also with you

All: Lamb of God, your love and compassion heals the world, have mercy on us ...
Lamb of God, your love and compassion heals the world, have mercy on us ...
Lamb of God, your love and compassion heals the world, grant us peace

(the Sacred Bread is given out, after which we all receive together)

Prayer of Receiving: All: Lord, you have made us worthy to receive you and by your Word, we are healed.

Communion Song: Come to the Water

O let all who thirst, let them come to the water
And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord;
Without money, without price. Why should you pay the price,
except for the Lord...

And let all who seek, let them come to the water.
And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord:
Without money, without strife. Why should you spend your life,
except for the Lord...

And let all who toil, let them come to the water.
And let all who are weary, let them come to the Lord:
All who labor without rest, How can your soul find rest,
except for the Lord...

And let all the poor, let them come to the water.
Bring the ones who are laden, bring them all to the Lord.
Bring the children without might. Easy the load and light.
Come to the Lord...

Communion Prayer: All: God of Compassion, may this eucharist bring us ever closer to you and make us one with all creation. In gratitude, we thank you through Jesus, the Christ, Amen
